

(Insert County Name) Cancer Council is offering a Study for a Healthier Community at No Cost to You

Everyone wants to be healthier, but how do we get to a healthier, happier you? Colorectal Cancer Education, Screening and Prevention Program: Empowering Communities for Life is offering a research study to help you at no cost. The study offers health information, disease prevention, and screening for chronic illness for local residents who are age 50 or older.

The study is designed for communities with health issues we face daily in the (Insert Target Area). Benefits include the opportunity to discuss risk factors for cancer and heart disease. Blood pressure checks and screening for colorectal cancer will be offered at no cost to you.

We look forward to working together with our friends and neighbors. Please come join us in creating a healthier, happier community. Colorectal Cancer Education, Screening and Prevention Program: Empowering Communities for Life is a research project created by [Insert Organization(s) Name].

Anyone who is interested in learning more about the study should contact local resident(s) (Insert Name and Number).